

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

SEBASTIAN ROBINSON,

Petitioner,

vs.

Civil No. 16-cv-020-DRH-CJP

MELISSA LOHMAN,

Respondent.

MEMORANDUM and ORDER

HERNDON, District Judge:

Petitioner Sebastian Robinson was an inmate in the BOP at the time he filed his petition for habeas relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2241. Respondent recently notified the Court that petitioner was transferred from FCI Greenville to a Residential Reentry Center in Council Bluff, Iowa. See, Doc. 16. The Court updated the docket sheet to reflect petitioner's new address.

Mail recently sent to petitioner at his new address has been returned as undeliverable. See, Docs. 18 & 20.

In its order on preliminary review, the Court warned petitioner of the consequences of failure to keep the Court informed of his whereabouts:

Petitioner is ADVISED of his continuing obligation to keep the Clerk (and each opposing party) informed of any change in his whereabouts during the pendency of this action. This notification shall be done in writing and not later than seven days after a transfer or other change in address occurs. Failure to provide such notice may result in dismissal of this action. See FED. R. CIV. P. 41(b).

Doc. 5, p. 6.

In addition, a recent Notice of Impending Dismissal imparted the same warning. See, Doc. 19.

Clearly, petitioner has not kept the Court informed of his whereabouts. This Court gave petitioner the “warning shot” required by Ball v. City of Chicago, 2 F.3d 752, 755 (7th Cir. 1993) in Docs. 5 & 19. Petitioner has failed to diligently pursue this case. Pursuant to Johnson v. Chicago Board of Education, 718 F. 3d 731 (7th Cir. 2013), the Court has considered whether a sanction short of dismissal of this case might be fruitful, and finds that it would not.

Conclusion

This cause of action is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE. The Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in favor of respondent.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
